ANSWERS ATTACK ON MINISTRY

Rev. Latta Griswold Does Not Believe Present Day Preaching Is Lacking In Power-Those That Have Ears To Hear, Will Hear The Gospel.

The sermon at the united Lenten cried: My God, why hast Thou for-saken Me?

He set forth his teachings, but the Latin Griswold of Berkeley Memorial chapel, Middletown, R. I. The audi-chape!, Middletown, R. I. The audience was large and was much interested in the forceful and eloquent words spoken by Rev. Mr. Griswold. He took for his text the 15th verse of the lith chapter of St. Matthew: He that hath cars to hear, let him hear.

In opening his discourse, Rev. Mr. Griswold spoke of a recent attack on the ministry by a western minister who claimed that the ministers were not using enough force, power and eloquence in their sermons. This ministers were not using enough force, power and eloquence in their sermons. This ministry were not those looked forward to. The number of people who heard it. Jesus Christ was a powerful preacher to be the country could be very much bettered if the ministers would put more force, more convincing statements and more power into their sermons, so that everybody would stop. AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The performance at the Auditorium starts off with the feature moving picture film. The Bride of Mystery, a three reel Gold Seal feature. The Alethia Twins make a hit with their dainty singing and dancing, also they are artists in the quick costume change act. Eddie Gray, known in the boxing circles as Billy Tucker, the exchampion leatherweight boxer and champion bag puncher, keeps the gathering watching closely all of his moves. His demonstration of the different knock-out blows is instructive as well as entertaining. The last vaudeville act is Dysen and Duffy, who prove to be very entertaining in The Bellboy and the Coon, introducing a two-headed poliseman. They kept the audience in good humor with their funny jokes. Vaudeville and Photoplays. The games that were played afforded lots of pleasure to the audience, especially the match between the juniors and the lower middlers in rolling the dumb bell, in which the juniors won by the score of $\tilde{\text{to}}$ to $\tilde{\text{8}}$.

The manner in which the tactles and marching was carried on showed how carefully the girls had been instructed by their teacher. Miss Moore was assisted by Miss Marguerite Wulf, who played the piano for the drills.
